

SCHEDULING FOR INSTRUCTION

Pitt County Schools believes that consistent instruction in the core subjects of reading, language arts, mathematics, science and social studies must be provided in adequate uninterrupted blocks of time. Therefore, no student shall be removed from instruction in the core subjects for practices, rehearsals, pep rallies, fund raising activities and other non-core academic activities without prior notification and approval of the principal.