

INSTRUCTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

The Pitt County Board of Education and the Pitt County Schools believe that each student should be provided a learning environment that will promote development of ongoing, meaningful success both individually and in relationship with others. Therefore, the Board delegates to the Superintendent the responsibility of providing appropriate instructional arrangements in each school and in each class to assure the necessary structure and organization needed to maximize learning for all students.