Be sure you are working on your Title I School Brochures. A draft of this brochure with the required elements is due to our office by June 28, 2024. The required components can be found here.

Title I Tidbits
May 6 - 10, 2024

Make sure you are uploading your required website documentation. Failure to upload ALL required information will result in your school's 2024-2025 funds being held until the website is in compliance. The checklist is located here.

The absolute LAST Day to request reimbursement from a parent event will be Friday, June 7th at 5:00 pm. Any parent involvement reimbursement requests submitted after this date will NOT be processed and your school will be responsible for the cost.

Don't forget to send me a copy of your packing slip from any TCM Decodables that were sent to your school!! These books MUST be stamped with your Title I Stamp or a label must be put in the back of the book. All decodables must be entered on your Title I Inventory Spreadsheet!!

If you are an ATSI school, please ensure that you are uploading artifacts in NCSTAR and reviewing progress towards indicators A4.01 and D1.02.

The finish line is in sight....have you instilled in your students and staff what they need to not just finish the race, but finish with success?

Lastly, in the words of Yoda...."Do or do not, there is no try".
