

Title I Tidbits

August 14 - 18, 2023

Everyone who remembers his own education remembers teachers, not methods and techniques. The teacher is the heart of the educational system.

Reminders for using your Title I Funds:

- Your Comprehensive Needs Assessment should drive your goals.
- Your expenditures with Title I funds should support your goals.
- Be cautious in spending more than 70% of your total budget on staffing as your funds may vary from year to year.
- This year's Title I funds should be spent on this year's students!
- Title I is used to supplement...the icing on the cake!

Parent Engagement

- * Enter your parent engagement events on the google calendar.
- * You need 5 parent engagement events each year!
- * Think outside the box; find fun and creative ways to educate your parents.
- * If you are planning to offer food at events, be sure to have people RSVP.

Website Reminders

Begin uploading required documentation for the 2023-2024 school year.

If you need assistance with your website documentation, please contact Patricia Cox.

“Education is one thing that no one can take away from you”

Congratulations to the following schools for having ALL of your Title I documents submitted!!

Ayden Elementary School
Ayden Middle School
Belvoir Elementary School

Title I Compacts

Each school should send home the district Title I Compact (Triplicate form)

AND

A school Title I Compact that each school creates.

Email me if you need a sample of a school compact!

There will be a meeting for all Title I Contacts in September...be on the lookout for more information!
