Our School

D.H. Conley High School, established in 1970, is one of seven high schools in Pitt County. There are approximately 1635 students attending our school. Our students follow 4 x 4 block schedule and are supported by teachers and staff committed to the success of each student. We value our cooperative relationship with the community and its members. Our school community enjoys the support of local citizens concerned and interested in our success as a school and the success of our students.

Curriculum

D.H. Conley High School offers a program of comprehensive course work, which must be successfully completed to acquire a high school diploma. Students are registered for classes designed to meet their abilities, individual needs and interests, and career goals. Our school community, along with Pitt Community College, offers dual enrollment for students interested in beginning college coursework while still in high school.

D.H. Conley High School adheres to the North Carolina Future Ready Core course of study. The course levels include Standard, Honors, and Advanced Placement (AP). D.H. Conley is pleased to offer the following courses for AP credit on our campus:
