Hello FBLA member and parents,

Fall Leadership will be held in Washington D. C. November 1st-3rd. You have to be an FBLA member to attend. You will be required to go to 3 sessions, opening and closing session. The cost is $265. This is a great opportunity for you to learn more about business concepts and ideas. You can also network with business leaders, colleges, and fellow students. Make sure you complete all forms for this trip if you want to attend. They can be found on the DHC FBLA website or you can see Mr. Haddock for the forms in room 217. Space is limited for the trip so please sign up as soon as possible if you would like to go!

You can pay for the trip in instalments, but you must have paid for the trip fully by October 15th. You must have completed the online form and this form to go on the trip. We will have to use the metro to go to the historical areas in Washington D.C. Students will have to pay for the metro when we are there so they will need at most $30 for the two-day pass on the Metro (not $30 a day). Food is also not factored in for the cost. The $265 pays for their seat on the bus, their hotel room for two nights, and conference registration. We completely understand this trip is costly, but it is a great opportunity for your student.

By signing below, you are agreeing to pay D. H. Conley FBLA the full amount of $265. If not paid this will go on school fees. I have to pay for many things in advance after you have signed up. If you back out after signing up and completing this form, I will have already payed for many of the associated cost.
