The following students from Pitt County Schools also participated in the 2012 Northeast Regional Science Fair:

Emily Dykes, Ayden Elementary, “It’s All About the Bag”

Keenan Wasklewicz, Wahl Coates Elem, “These Bugs are a Changin’ – Variations in Macroinvertebrates along Mill Brook, VT”

Joshua Harris and Blake McLawhorn, Ayden Elementary, “Hocus Pocus on Routine and Focus”

Avery Clifford, Wahl Coates Elem, “Expanding Liquids”

Lauren Arnold, Lakeforest Elem, “Egg-cellent Dental Hygiene”

Kaleb Sessoms, Lakeforest Elem, “Water Weight”

Michael Valverde, Lakeforest Elem, “Extreme Soda Foam Geysers”

Hunter Blount, South Greenville Elem, “Melon Head”

Ginger Evans, South Greenville Elem, “Insulation Appreciation”

Mason Mattox, W.H. Robinson Elem, “Snow vs. Sponge”

Charles Gribble, Ayden Elem, “Unfolding the Truth about Mold”

Mackenzie Hanlon, Elmhurst, “The Water Drop”

Ryan Mehta and Easton Dally, Elmhurst, “The Golden Age”

Cameron Rogister and Cory Stallings, Chicod, “Does Color Effect Blood Pressure?”

Morgan Pugh and Kaitlyn Purvis, Chicod, “Hot, Hotter, Hottest”

Graceson Williams, CM Eppes, “Cabbages, Acids, Bases, Oh My”

Alexis Vann and Kaitlyn Speight, Chicod, “Electrifying Water”

Michael Newbern, Adam Evans and Isamar Mateo, Chicod, “Part Soil”

Jenna Nichols and Savanah Perrini, Chicod, “Kids Play”

Audrey Cannon and Noor Siddiqi, CM Eppes, “Testing Static Electricity”

Zachary Liaros, Hope Middle School, “Testing the Effectiveness of SPF’s in Sunscreens”

Austin Strickland, Cody Hardee and Austin Whitley, Chicod, “We Can Crush It!”